Vere Foster

Vere Henry Louis Foster was one of the greatest Irishmen ever. He was born in Copenhagen on April 25, 1819. He was educated at Eton and Oxford. During his tenure, he always considered education to be the way forward. He developed an upright handwriting in which the slope is less while still sufficient to keep the handwriting from settling into backhand. He promoted a new model of handwriting, reverting to the wider letter body proportions of eighteenth century hands and eliminating the contrast between thick and thin strokes. The Vere Foster Civil Service hand was the most frequently taught handwriting in British schools from the 1880s until well into the 1950s. He died on December 21, 1900, in a cheap lodging house in Belfast.
